Biography

David R. Hague is Of Counsel with Fabian VanCott. He is experienced in representing secured and unsecured creditors, debtors, debtors-in-possession, trustees and receivers in federal and state courts. He has successfully represented clients before the 10th U.S. Circuit and the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel for the 10th U.S. Circuit. David is familiar with all aspects of the Uniform Commercial Code, having litigated in both federal and state court several complex issues involving Articles 2, 3, 4, and 9 of the U.C.C. David also handles complex commercial litigation cases where he teams with Fabian VanCott attorneys with expertise in the firm's core competency areas. In litigation, David represents clients on issues involving leasing, secured transactions, real property, ERISA, employment, and the FDCPA. He received his law degree from the University of Kansas, where he was managing editor of the Kansas Law Review and a member of the Order of the Coif. During law school, David clerked for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Kansas. He earned his bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Utah, graduating with honors. David is admitted to state and federal courts in Utah and Nevada as well as the 10th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.
