Biography

Anthony Panek represents clients in complex business transactions, business formations, non-registered offerings and stock transactions (Rule 144, Section 4(a)(1), Reg D, Reg A, etc.), mergers and acquisitions, partnership and corporate tax matters and structuring, estate planning, venture capital, and state tax controversies. Anthony has previously worked with interested groups and individuals in drafting proposed legislation at the state and federal level.

Anthony's clients range from established companies, funds, small businesses, oil and gas companies, broker-dealers, early-stage start-ups, middle-stage companies, trade group and associations, private individuals, and individual investors.

Anthony is an arbitrator for FINRA and was an Honors Clerk with Securities and Exchange Commission and U.S. Congress. Anthony previously served as Assistant Attorney General in the Tax, Antitrust, and Financial Services division of the Utah Attorney General's Office and as General Counsel for a large OTC Broker-Dealer.

In his spare time Anthony is an avid fly-fisherman, golfer, and marksman. He enjoys baseball, horse racing, gardening, and spending time on his family's ranch in rural Utah.
