Biography

Jason Hardin is the President of Fabian VanCott. He has first-chaired more than seventy-five civil and administrative trials and private arbitrations through decision and second-chaired many others, often in large-scale, complex cases with multiple parties, numerous expert and fact witnesses, and novel legal and factual issues. Jason knows how to aggressively resolve a case and, if necessary, how to efficiently manage a team and take a case to trial. Jason has significant experience in a variety of complex commercial and business disputes, class actions, consumer fraud, real estate and development disputes, warranty claims, catastrophic events, mass torts, mine safety (MSHA, FMSHRC), occupational safety (OSHA, UOSH, Cal/OSHA), and construction defect cases. Jason is licensed to practice in Utah and Nevada and has appeared in numerous courts, arbitrations and mediations across the country: in Utah, Nevada, California, Alabama, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Missouri, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Washington D.C., and West Virginia. Jason received his law degree from the University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law, where he was Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Land, Resources and Environmental Law. He earned his bachelor's degree in physics from Rice University in Houston, Texas. Prior to practicing law, Jason was a U.S. Navy nuclear submarine officer and Department of Energy certified Naval Nuclear Engineer.
