Biography

Charles “Chuck” Conrad has quickly accumulated a distinctive record, with expertise in the areas of catastrophic personal injuries and tort, complex commercial litigation, and bad-faith insurance claims. “Helping my clients in need is one of the great joys of my life. In my office the lawyer reads every record and reviews every document, so that my clients can rely on their case being handled by an attorney in its entirety from beginning to end.”

He has been widely acknowledged as a top lawyer, being named regularly to many of the profession’s most highly recognized listings, including National Trial Lawyers Top 100, an invited-only group comprising the most outstanding trial lawyers from each state who meet rigorous qualifications, whether as civil plaintiff and/or criminal defense trial counsel. Membership is determined through a peer nominating process and third-party research to certify qualifications of superior leadership, reputation, influence, stature, and public profile. Other honors include Top 40 Under 40 (also an invitation-only process) and the Utah Legal Elite, a listing published by Utah Business Magazine highlighting the top lawyers in Utah as voted by their peers.

Chuck is a member of both the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum, of which fewer than one percent of U.S. lawyers are members. The Forums signify the individual’s unique expertise in achieving superior results in complex litigation, which, in turn, serves as a professional platform for experienced colleagues across the nation to exchange information, provide expert assistance and identify professional referrals.

He has been named to the Utah Rising Stars list, an exclusive compilation recognizing just 2.5 percent of all licensed attorneys in the state. The Utah Rising Stars list is part of Super Lawyers, a service of Thomson Reuters, a professional rating service predicated on a rigorous peer-review, research-driven process honoring attorneys who have attained a high distinction of peer recognition and professional achievement.

He is admitted to practice in all of the State and Federal Courts of Utah and Washington, as well as the 9th and 10th Federal Circuit Courts of Appeals. Mr. Conrad is a member of the Gonzaga University School of Law Board of Advisors, the Utah Bar Association, the Washington Bar Association, Utah Association for Justice, the Washington Association for Justice, and the David L. Watkiss-Sutherland II Inn of Court. He is a former trustee of the Washington State Young Lawyers Association.
