

L. STANFORD MCCULLOUGH IV

Attorney / Associate | Salt Lake City

Licensure: UT

Biography

An associate attorney at Fabian VanCott. Stanford graduated from the S.Q. Quinney school of Law (University of Utah) and then received his LLM in Taxation from UC Irvine. He currently serves as the Program Chair of the Tax Section of the Utah State Bar.

During Stanford's undergrad, he worked to become a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ in the country's #1 program and he maintains his CFP® designation today. Combining his CFP® with his LLM in Taxation, Stanford is well-equipped to be an asset for his clients in planning around their personal finances and in navigating their tax picture.

At the firm, Stanford specializes in income tax planning for liquidation events, wealth transfer and estate planning, and business succession planning for high-net-worth families and entrepreneurs. Stanford is surrounded by a team of reputable income and estate attorneys who assist on complicated income and estate tax planning cases and transactions.

Stanford is entrepreneurial-oriented and started several part-time businesses while in college. Stanford is an avid sports fan and loves skiing, mountain biking, canyoneering, and mountain climbing.
