

CAMILA N. QUIÑONES

Attorney / Associate | Salt Lake City

Licensure: UT, CA

Biography

Cami is an associate attorney with Fabian VanCott. She assists clients with corporate transactions and business succession planning.

Her work includes mergers and acquisitions, commercial transactions, early-stage financing, debt and equity raises, equity incentive plans, corporate reorganizations, and trust and estate administration and planning.

Prior to joining Fabian VanCott, Cami practiced corporate immigration law in Silicon Valley, assisting clients ranging from Fortune 500 companies to early-stage startups with employment-based nonimmigrant visas.

Cami's pro bono efforts have included participating in naturalization workshops, preparing individuals for their citizenship interviews, assisting with adjustments of status for asylees, and helping women and children in the South Texas Family Residential Center prepare for credible fear interviews as part of their asylum proceedings.

In her free time, Cami enjoys spending time with her husband, watching international dramas and Argentine soccer, learning new languages, and visiting her home in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Cami is fluent in English and Spanish.
